

ORANGE HALL 4224 PETROLIA LINE

This building, called the Orange Hall by early towns people used to be home of John G. Fraser's grocery and variety store as well as Sanderson's grocery. Calahan's Liquor store was also here. The building was recently restored and renovated by the Grandis family.

FRASER'S VARIETY STORE IN THE 1940S

Current Occupant:
Petrolia Street Bakery
Previous occupants:
Fraser's Variety Store,
Sanderson's Grocery,
Calahan's Liquor Store,
Grandis Jewellers

This heritage project is sponsored by

